

ABSTRACT & Plain Language Summary

This project aims to raise awareness of early hearing healthcare for families with hearing loss children and professionals working with them. It offers a roadmap for early detection and intervention, potentially improving outcomes. It also provides access to information on services and resources from local pediatric audiology centers.